

SOCIAL MEDIA POLICY

Preamble – The Spirit of Cricket

Cricket is a game that owes much of its unique appeal to the fact that it is to be played not only within its Laws, but also within the spirit of the game. Any action seen as abusing this spirit causes injury to the game itself.

Embracing the spirit of the game means participating, either as a player, official or spectator, fairly and exhibiting respect for other players, officials and spectators, as well as the games traditional values such as graciousness in defeat and humility in victory.

Cricket has a distinct place in Australian society and history. As an element in Australia's national identity, cricket plays a significant role. This status brings with it particular responsibilities for players, officials and spectators to conform to the high standards of fair play and personal behaviour on and off the field.

Policy overview and purpose

Social media is changing the way we communicate. It is essential that you understand that any comments you make on social media platforms are as public as if you were making them at the clubrooms, on the field, to the media or at any other public gathering.

This policy contains the guidelines for the Golden Grove Cricket Club ("the Club") community to engage in social media use. It also includes details of breaches of the policy.

In circumstances where guidance about social media issues has not been given in this policy, we suggest you use common sense or seek out advice from those who have approved this policy.

All members and supporters of the Club are also bound by the social media policies of any associations with which the Club is affiliated

NOTE: This policy does not apply to the personal use of social media where it is not related to or there is no reference to the Club or its matches, training, teams, participants, products, services, events, sponsors, members or reputation. However, any misuse by you of social media in a manner that does not directly refer to the Club may still be regulated by other policies, rules or regulations of the Club.
